

NAME _____ HR _____

Using information from our text or online sources, write about a typical day in the life of an early American living during an ice age. Make sure to address food, clothing, climate, art/tools, and landscape. Read below to see an example:

A day in the life of an islander in the south pacific (warm climate)

Time	Activity
7:00-7:30	woke and bathed in lagoon
7:30-8:00	Gathered bananas and coconut milk and prepared and ate breakfast
8:00-8:30	Fixed hole in hut roof using palm leaves gathered yesterday
8:30-9:30	Went spear fishing on sandbar for lunch
9:30-10:00	Gathered fire wood and started fire
10:00-10:30	Went gathering fruit and water for lunch
10:30-11:00	Went gathering sea shells and sharpened one to use as a knife to clean fish
11:00-11:30	Cleaned fish using sharpened shell and cooked fish on stick
11:30-12:00	Ate fish, mangos, and water
12:00-1:00	Gathered palm grass in forest to make a new sleeping mat
1:00-3:30	Wove a sleeping mat in the shade to escape the severe heat
3:30-4:00	Went clam gathering for dinner
4:00-4:30	Gathered fire wood and started a fire
4:30-5:00	Went gathering fruit and water for dinner
5:00-5:30	Cleaned and cooked clams
5:30-6:00	Ate dinner of clams, pineapple, and water
6:00-6:30	Gathered gourds to use as bowls and water containers
6:30-8:00	Gathered dried grass and shells
8:00-9:30	Used dried grass and shells to weave and decorate a grass skirt for worship ceremony/dance
10:00-12:00	Worship ceremony/dance to ask the gods for blessings
12:00	Went to bed on new sleeping mat, watching the moon's reflection in the ocean waves.

